

XCONNECT PRESS RELEASES

- 18 February 2005 XConnect launches the XConnect Global Alliance - first service based on ENUM and SIP Signaling to bridge VoIP islands and facilitate settlement-free peering of VoIP Service Providers
- 23 March 2005 North American launch of XConnect's Global Alliance peering federation
- 7 September 2005 XConnect named to Pulver 100
- 19 September 2005 XConnect raises $2 Million first round of funding
- 25 January 2006 XConnect, in partnership with Kayote Networks, awarded World's First MSO National VoIP Peering Project in the Netherlands
- 16 May 2006 XConnect Acquires E164.info, The Carrier ENUM Exchange.
- 20 June 2006 XConnect Announces Availability of Local Directory Server™
- 12 Sept 2006 XConnect Acquires IPeerX, a US based provider of VoIP Peering. IPeerX founder Jeff Pulver Named a Member of the XConnect Advisory Board
- 13 Sept 2006 XConnect launches XConnect Ready Partner Program based on certified interoperability with Nextone and AcmePacket SBCs. sentitO, VocalTec, Cantata and other leading vendors join in following months expanding community of equipment vendors supporting peering.
- 16 Jan 2007 DirectRoute™ Service launched at PTC
- 20 March 2007 XConnect and Terremark to create first of its kind Brazilian VoIP Peering Federation
- 24 April 2007 XConnect raises $12 Million in Tier 1 VC Equity Funding Enables Global Expansion of its Federated IP Communications Peering Services
- 12 June 2007 Telcordia and XConnect to Jointly Offer VoIP Peering Federations
- 19 July 2007 XConnect Appoints David Schwartz as Chief Technology Officer
- 31 October 2007 Voice over broadband providers from Asia, Americas and Europe join XConnect Peering Federations
- 31 October 2007 Nextone certifies XConnect as service-ready VoIP peering solution
- 18 December 2007 XConnect expands with new UK Headquarters and Opens Research & Development Facility in Israel
- 12 March 2008 XConnect appoints Dr. Paul Reynolds, CEO of Telekom New Zealand and former CEO of BT Wholesale, to its Board of Directors
- June 18 2008 VoIP Logic Partners with XConnect To Deliver VoIP Peering to its Customers Worldwide